People are fascinating. They come in all shapes and in all sizes. Some are sad and some are happy. Some are pretty and some are plain. There are infinite varieties. For this reason, if for no other, no event ever be still. You can witness a full two hours of football without a completed pass or a single run and still leave the stadium completely exhausted. You can attend a dance that is seemingly no different than all the rest and come away with a new sense of awareness.

FRIENDS . . . THEY . . . com

You can spend an entire year in school that on the surface may be unsuccessful and still have a treasure chest of the most meaningful memories you're likely to ever tuck away in your head.

- A. Confidence is having friends behind all the ways.
- B. Embarrassment is the Pep Club's key to success!
- C. Booster staff is always dropping study hall.
- D. End of the six weeks again . . . book reports.
- E. Football games are backed by the band-o's halftime.
- F. "Oh, Coochie! You've got bad breath!"
- G. "What's so funny? What's the joke?"
- H. Game nights are a lot of fun cheering for your own heroes.
- I. Having your best friend's advice reassures your success.
- J. Competition drives friends closer.

IN ALL SHAPES AND

What is a friend? A friend is someone you can just sort of relax and do nothing with or talk to confidentially about almost anything. A friend is someone who does many little acts of thoughtfulness for you. It's someone with whom you share your dearest possessions, as well as your taste for many of the same things. A friend is someone who dares to dream your dreams with you and remembers the special occasions in your life.

SIZES. FRIENDS.

- A. Finding yourself in the corner isn't hard in Mr. Newell's class.
- B. Algebra II is hard for many daydreamers.
- C. The tramp was a hard feat for Miss Borland's athletes.
- D. Teaching elementary gym could wear you out!
- E. Why does good food always end with doing the dishes?
- F. The best class is when there is no class!
- G. Eighth period band is the start of each halftime show.
- H. "How did I ever get that absurd nickname 'Turkey'?"
- I. What has pitching pennies got to do with journalism class?
- J. "Practice makes perfect", right, Gail Nash?

THEY COME IN ALL SIZES

A phone call from a friend can brighten your day. A friend is someone you can rely on for even the smallest things. A friend will gently tell you your faults and will like you just as much to spite of them. All of which leaves no doubt IT'S GOOD TO HAVE A FRIEND.

- A. Making up flag routines takes some of Kathy Chastain's time.
- B. The Color Guard assist the band by saluting the flag.
- C. Pinwheels, "hooligan", and "peacock" are steps the band repeats during shows.
- D. The cheerleaders skip to the pep band's rocking songs.
- E. "Hey Look Us Over" is the Pep Club's favorite cheer.
- F. Holding the runthrough is important.
- G. Individuality appears in each person's creative name.
- H. The school's greatest and coolest drummer . . . Dane Ford!
- I. Fans really swing to Hawaii Five-O.

HAPES AND SIZES.

FRiENDS THEY CO

Friends are a way of life. You depend on them for little things, but most of all for a lot of fun. Without them you would be lost. Of course all activities show success when people are there, and when they are having fun.

Sometimes they get carried away with their goodness, but it is good close fun. But then what are friends without fun?

ME TOO ALL SHAPES

- A. The coat check is one of the disadvantages of a sophomore year.
- B. The Christmas dance began a ten day vacation.
- C. I bet Fred Gurr easily slid down those chimneys last Christmas.
- D. "Hey kid, Where'd you get that hat?"
- E. We just stopped to say "hi".
- F. Scraping car windows after school usually turned into snow fights.
- G. "How do you like our new art work, man?"
- H. All the home ec. girls do is eat, don't they?
- I. Mary's imaginary wedding was attended well by its planners.
- J. Our carolers greeted each teacher's house singing and chattering noisily.

Spartans Rip 11 More, Tie State Win Streak

For the fourth straight season the gridders found themselves on top of the league and the three state polls. This year it was different; the squad got the chance to prove they were tops and did it. The team now holds the longest currently running winning streak. Paul Brown's Massillon Tigers is the only other team that has managed 38 straight.

As far as the NCC went, the football team went through almost unopposed. The defense allowed only 34 points and 880 yards the whole season, while the offense dashed for 226 points and 2,661 yards.

Junior standouts included quarterback Scott Ballinger who made NCC and Central District first teams, and Jamie Bright who received a second team district spot and Honorable Mention NCC.

The highlight of the year was the State final game. The Lorain Clearview Clippers (10-1) were the first to hit paydirt and led at the half 8-6. In the third quarter Lorain threatened from the one, but Cheetham knocked the ball loose, and Bright raced 95 yards for the go ahead touchdown. The PAT was good, and PHS lead 14-

8. Lorain scored again, but the PAT pass was deflected, and the score was knotted at 14. The next score came with 5 seconds left. Fortner faded back to pass and was crushed by King and Huddle while Mauk picked up the bouncing ball and scampered 42 yards for the game winner.

Wrestling Catches on at PHS, 40 Join Team,

The 1972-73 team took a somber tone as it came at the start of the matches, and went on to become the team's most outstanding section with 101 in the district.

Mike Shriver, left, Freeport's record most improved wrestler, and Mike Shriver, captain of the team, had their hands full for the mats. Shriver is shown here in a strong position.

Spartan Five Take Third Straight NCC Title

The PHS basketball team sprinted past 26 opponents and claimed the state title. The squad also captured ~~the~~ third straight NCC title. One of the most outstanding qualities of the team was total team work.

Terry King led the team in field goal percentage and foul shooting percentage. Dave Mauk shot 50% from the field and Scott Ballinger shot 81% from the foul line. Larry Fins led the team in shooting with a 52%.

A. Selected to the all state squad was Terry King. B. Denny Shroats came in hot off the bench in many games. C. Scott Ballinger was named to the NCC team. D. Another NCC team member was Dave Mauk. E. After scoring 16 points in the final game, Max Midlam was named to the all tourney team.

Franklin Monroe Downed in 75 to 72 Thriller

All victories aren't easily won, and the Spartans know that better than anyone. After riding in the bus for 4 hours, the team arrived at the Dayton Arena. Ballinger and King were both ill and they both fouled out. While these two sat out, the team went to work and came from behind to take the win and on to State play.

Fink, Ballinger Aid Spartan Five

Although five seniors were in the squad, the mid-career class was well represented. In the first game, Scott Ballinger started at guard. Scott was a 100% field goal shooter and made a three-point shot from the outside equally well.

Larr, on the other hand, was one of the best goal rebounders in the mats. Both will be in the line-up in the second game. Of the five seniors in the team, four saw action in the first game and three in the second. The four have a three-year record of 7-7.

Stickmen Gain Spot in NCC Co-Championship

This year's baseball team completely reversed last year's losing mark. They ended the season with a 11-5 mark, and a 6-3 mark in the NCC. The 6-3 mark was good enough to put the Spartans into a tie for first in the league.

Mound ace Denny Shroats was named to the all-district team as was Ron Wine and Steve Freshour. Denny fanned 103 batters in 68 innings. Wine finished the season with a batting average of .340.

Besides landing Denny Shroats on the NCC team, Steve Freshour and Ron Wine were also named. Steve was a junior this year, and Ron was a sophomore. Both are expected back next year. Greg Guy received honorable mention for NCC squad.

Golden Harvest Adds Color to Drab Fall

Golden harvest was the name given to this year's homecoming dance which saw a record number turn out. Decorated like a country cornfield, the cafeteria was the hub of activity for the evening. Spot lighted corn shocks as well as pumpkins, stuffed dummies, and other articles reminiscent of the season added to the fall setting.

A. The homecoming court reigned with honor at the 1972 festivities.
B. Michelle Parker was chosen to be this year's queen.
C. The Spartans ground out much hard yardage as they defeated River Valley 20-14.
D. Pam and Vicki Kohlet with Connie Brady work on the outdoor float.

E. Freshman: Jane Hunt
F. Soph.: Cindy Clinger
G. Junior: Linda McNeil
H. Senior: Becky Lawrence
I. Greg Sens takes time out to sip from the punch.
J. These are some of the many people at the dance.

Seasonal Spirit Shown in Splendid Spectacles

A. These students won prizes for the most original costumes at the party.
B. This young golfer is thinking this shot through.
C. Nick Sansotta ties up a balloon at Fun Night.
D. Mrs. Heine demonstrates her apple bobbing technique.
E. Sally Miller urges twin Diana Rush on as they near the end of the race.

Halloween and Christmas were celebrated with exuberance. This year the annual Fun Night brought young and old alike for food, games, and prizes. Ghosts and witches were among the guests that arrived for the GAA Costume Party. Painted windows, done by art students, were the first hint of Christmas. A concert and a Christmas Dance helped students have a merrier holiday.

- A. This couple could have danced all night.
- B. As in the past, the art class colorfully decorated the windows.
- C. Santa, Fred Gurr, and his helper Terry King distributed gifts at a Christmas assembly.
- D. The GAA Christmas Dance attracted a very merry crowd.
- E. Performing Christmas carols and music, the band and choir met an enthusiastic audience.

1937 Comedy Is a Real Winner in 1973

The Pulitzer Prize winning comedy of 1937 was "You Can't Take It With You" by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. On April 13 and 14, 1973, Cartier C-111 performed it in the round.

The play, under the direction of Mrs. Marion Goyen, Jr., Student Director Martin Gabbit, is the story of the Saksenbergs, a family who finds time to enjoy life to the fullest.

The time and hard work put in not only by the cast but also by all the committee members, was highlighted by a curtain call after the final performance.

Play Cast, KNEELING: S. McClint, ROW 1: J. Huesmann, T. Baldwin, S. Dunbar, M. Rasev, Student Director M. Gimbut, D. Jesse, B. Lawrence. ROW 2: L. Huesmann, S. Lastrapes, J. Granger, J. Goyer, K. Lantz, T. Baker, B. Wood, J. Medaugh, R. Bailey, G. Rice, G. Lawrence, D. Martin.

A. Donald (Tim Baldwin) reads the news to his girlfriend Rheba (Jan Gaver). B. "Stand right where you are, everybody. Don't move." "Oh, my goodness! J-men!" C. The transformation of Tim Baldwin to his role as Donald. D. "I'm sorry to trouble you, but snakes happen to be ---" E. Grand Duchess Olga Katrina (Sue Dunbar) brings out the blintzes. F. Just an average night at home with the Sycamores.

Various Assemblies Stimulate Student Interest

During the school year several assemblies, ranging from a Christmas play to a bronze shoe, took place. There were also many activities indoors and out of doors.

These assemblies were mainly sponsored by the student council, and gave the students a little break from the everyday routine of class after class.

Spartan Spirit Shines on Stage

This year saw the resumption of the talent show. Cancelled last year for lack of interest, the talent show was apparently missed as nearly 30 acts signed up for this year's extravaganza.

Awards were given this year in two categories, musical and comical. The winning musical act was a rock group called F.H. Second place went to sophomore Carolyn Scott, who sang an impressive solo solo. In the comedy area, Grannies A-Go-Go, the senior girls chorus were first with The Injury taking second. The talent show was presented on Friday, the 27th, and Saturday the 28th of April. It was sponsored by the student council, which also provided refreshments.

- A. The Instimabulators rang bells to prove that a clever act is possible?
- B. Jeff Marlatt humorously introduced The Gobul as Chef Carter.
- C. Rare, Robinson played the bass guitar in F.
- D. Carolyn Scott singing her second place song.
- E. The Porter staff in 1 team and draftees from the audience created

- much action.
- F. The Grannies A-Go-Go performing a part of the can can.
- G. The Injury took second place in comedy.
- H. The Boswell Sisters with the Dorsey Brothers in the background.
- I. Debbie Babin and Sheri Millet did difficult moves on the uneven parallel bars.

Intramurals Initiate Individuality, Insight

This year the intramural system at Pleasant was even more exciting with a record number of students participating. Both boys and girls' activities brought out a great cross section of the student body. This year there were eight championships, four and four. Nearly all of the students in the school participated in various intramurals, which ranged from ping pong to volleyball.

Other activities were volleyball, ping pong, football and basketball with badminton, soccer, volleyball, checkers, and chess teams. The intramural system was set up by Mr. Becker and Miss Bolland. These two have had a few moments of some of the fun.

A. Max Midlam hits over a point in the championship volleyball game. Other winning members were Mark Boyd, Larry Cheetham, Bruce Harrison, Harrison, George Gehring, Mike Wallace, Ned Saums, Tim Acker, and Steve Curren.

B. Girls ringtoss players: Michele Parker, Frances Schlaefer, Cheryl Gray, Sheri Miller, Diane Linder, Anita Cochran, and Mindy Huff.

C. Girls volleyball, Anita Cochran, Linda McNeil, Cindi Campbell, Spring Boyd, and Michele Parker.

D. Football champs: Dick Harbin, Jeff Duprey, Robbie Lill, Bob Roberts, Kevin Kyle, and Ned Saums.

E. Girls volleytennis: Debbie Sears, Carol Schlaefer, Kim Pierce, Janis Rech, Pam Myers, Phyllis Martin, and Diane Linder.

F. Meet the team night!

G. Boys basketball was won by Doug Jerew's team in overtime.

H. This is just a typical day in the gym during intramurals.

Juniors Present "Treasures of the Sea"

On May 12, 1973, Neptune, King of the Sea, reigned over the festivities of the Junior-Senior Prom, "Treasures of the Sea."

A mermaid guarding a chest of gold, a shipwrecked sailor, and a pirate's lost treasure were some of the picturesque decorations.

The evening began at 9:00 with a dance and a buffet supper which lasted until midnight. Music for the dance was performed by the Logan Brothers.

Following the dance, the guests saw the movie "SUNDER" and roller-skated until early morning.

A. Debbie Selter and Mike Hendershot danced to the music of the Logan Brothers.

B. Plates of delicious food attracted hungry partygoers.

C. Mona Mayes and her date danced in front of the treasure chest.

Dances, Sophomore Games Give Students Enjoyment

The annual sophomore vs. faculty games were held again this year. The faculty once again won. The sophomore team celebrated the games in the cafeteria of the school, and the faculty had a time in eating the best in a slim menu.

There were also several dances this year, at the G.A.'s, senior, most of them. They were met with great approval and enthusiasm. The dances had a music and the students were狂欢.

- A. Dan Newing bids a final farewell to his alma mater.
- B. Mr. Newell goes up for two as the rivulized crowd watches on.
- C. The women race to plan their strategy and listen to Coach Barron.
- D. Senior Deb Averett dances to the music of Fuge at a G.A.'s, sophomore dance.
- E. Not to be outdone, the seniors had their caucus too.

PEOPLE

Languages, the Basic Need of Every Student

Faculty, call them human beings; they grade papers, make lesson plans, make tests, and give six weeks grades. But, they are also talkers and listeners, the most important features of being good teachers. Our language teachers consist of the following: A. Jane Peacock, B. Barbara Callahan, C. Marion Gemmill, D. Margaret VanSickle; E. David Cheney, F. Carolyn Heine.

Latin, History, Music, Art Builds Minds

Math and science teachers at PHS are versatile, like Mr. Porter who teaches algebra II, chemistry and physics. Mr. Newell lends his hand at algebra I, geometry, senior, and advanced math. Advanced and general biology are taught by Mr. Gucker. Mr. Kirby teaches geometry. Physical education and health are taught by both Mr. Kirby and Miss Borland. The DCT program is headed by Mr. Merton A. Merton Porter; B. Stan Kirby; C. Jerry Newell; D. Robert Gucker; E. Karen Borland; F. Don Kay; F. Steve McGuire,

DCT, Science, Math, and Gym Enrich Students

Pupils Obtain Skills in Vocational Courses

Home economics, industrial arts, and secretarial skills are the courses covered in PHS's vocational program. Mrs. Busch teaches home economics while Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Hines teach our future secretaries. Mr. Sherer, Mr. Stose, and Mr. Cackler teach industrial arts. Mr. Kyle teaches general math, general science, and geography.

A. Rosemary Hines;
B. Beverly Allen;
C. Tom Stose;
D. Ed Cackler;
E. Don Scherer;
F. John Kyle;
G. Lavina Busch.

School Functions Start at the Administration

The administration is the beginning of all school functions. All the people involved are hard working and very helpful.

A. Members of the school board are (ROW 1) John P. Lawrence, Clerk Grace McMurray, William E. Payette (ROW 2), Joseph Short, Robert Bush, vice-president Donald E. Sims, and president Dr. D. H. MacPherson. B. Very busy high school secretary is Mrs. Shroats.

C. Running the office of superintendent is Mr. Joseph Short.

D. Mrs. Smith also helps out with high school secretarial chores.

E. The head of the high school is principal Mr. Paul Midlam.

These Unsung Heroes Drive Students Onward

While the bus drivers are steering us to school, Mr. Barnes is steering students out of problems they might have and directing ways to turn in the job world. A. Joe Morman teaches the occupational education class. He also helps out with PHS's clubs financial records. B. Mrs. Grace McMurray takes care of Pleasant High School's financial matters as school clerk. C. Mr. Guerdon Barnes is kept busy as the guidance counselor for the high school. D. Bus Drivers present, ROW 1: DeLauder, J. Lehner, C. Mead, F. Seiter, Yates. ROW 2: B. Rush, J. Newell, G. Hoch. A. Lust, P. Keeran, J. Burris.

Strict Rule, Friendship Form an Administration

A. Mr. Wilcox-Jr. High Principal
B. Mrs. Freshour-Jr. High Secretary
C. Mr. Hunt-Elementary Principal
D. Mrs. Philians-Elementary Secretary

Art Is a Very Much Liked Course at Pleasant

A. Mr. M. Mitchell instructs a student in playing the piano.
B. Mrs. Schram shows students in the elementary what is used in writing a song.
C. Mrs. George with an art magazine examines a new art form with two of her pupils.

Work, Study Needed To Make An Education

Special Arts Are Taught for Home, Life

Home Economics and Industrial Arts are two technical trainings that Pleasant offers to its Jr. High students. The training is excellent and the projects are enjoyable so that most students begin to take further courses in high school for a possible graduate job. Students in the ungraded class can also prepare for their futures after graduation. They learn the basics of education to apply their talents.

A. Mrs. Harmen instructs a class in the use of an electric range and the many ways of cooking.
B. Mr. Stose examines a student's project for a grade in wood working and crafts.

C. Mrs. Bradley teaches the ungraded class who need more time to be instructed.

English, History Are Main Courses at P.J.H.S.

A. Mrs. Dendinger looks content as she types a test for her students.
B. Mrs. Adelsperger shows that a clean desk helps keep the attention of her students on the subject of English.
C. Mr. Holman explains how

Ohio was founded and how it grew to be a large industrial and agricultural state.
D. Mr. Covert displays a sword of the medieval period while explaining about castles.

Science, Math Often Have Difficult Problems

Good Personnel Helps Keep Pleasant Going

A. Mr. McClasky and
B. Mrs. Rowland keep Pleasant Jr.
High neat and clean.
C. Mrs. Leffler, Mrs. McClain, and Mrs. Deitsch cook up a good meal for the growing youth.

Elementary Referees React Readily

The elementary school referee is the one that is far the furthest from being the "true" "fairness" at work in their work. At times, these young school referees are as bad as Mrs. A or Mr. B. At other times, they are as good as Mrs. C or Mr. D. In the school referee's case, Mrs. A is being good at the referee's work, Mrs. C is bad. Mrs. A has issues with the school referee's account. Is it the referee's stage? No, it's Mrs. A or Mrs. C, whatever and Mrs. A doesn't want the referee to do it, too!

Class of '73 Has Many "Irons in the Fire;" Seniors'

A senior's life is never dull. Between participating in activities such as Pep Club, FHA, GAV, Bird Watchers, FTA, Band, Drama Club, Yearbook staff, POINTER staff, and sports ranging from football and basketball to wrestling and track, they have obligations to their schoolwork also. To prepare for the future, they study under the college preparatory courses and under various vocational programs.

The biggest isn't always the best as is demonstrated by this class of 84 students, who received many academic and athletic awards. Scholarships, Teen-agers of the Month, State Homemaker Degrees, Outstanding Band Members, All-Ohio Teams, and outstanding athletes are some of the honors awarded to the Class of '73.

On Friday, May 25, at approximately 8:30 a.m., 80 young people left the Pleasant High School gymnasium as young adults following graduation exercises. The class address was given by former PHS student Karen Sward and Lt. Charles Huber. Greg C. presented the senior address and Teresa McLean sang "I May Never Pass This Way Again." Honor students were Noreen Bond and Jim Anderson.

A. Karen Sward, Class President, sang the senior address.
B. Karen Sward, Class President, Christ McLean, Vice-Vice-President, Barbara Messinger, and Mary McLean head the senior class as honor students.

URGENT RELEASE

Enthusiastic Juniors Add Their Success

"As opposed to seniors" is the dictionary's definition of a junior, but the junior class spent many hours this year working and the junior-senior project success with their "victory hat" sale filled

St. Isidore with extra spirit and enthusiasm. As a thank you for their participation, the seniors were a part of Friday's victory celebration.

Sophomores Make Gains Toward Future Goals

The term "sophomore" is derived from the Greek words meaning "wise" and "foolish." The Class of '75, however, carries an accent on the former.

A very active class, the sophomores sponsored many money-making projects, including the sophomore-faculty basketball game, coat check, cake raffle, and a commemorative banner sale.

The sophomores are ahead, following a winning tradition.

Freshmen Lay Foundation for Future Success

The dictionary's definition for "freshman" is "a novice", but they made a fine beginning for their high school years. A stationary sale was perhaps their greatest source of revenue for the year, and a good start was made toward their financial goals.

The Class of '76 is proving itself as hardworking and determined, to continue the Pleasant tradition they've inherited.

THE CUBBERLY STUDIO

Dear Seniors,

First of all, we want you to know it has been a pleasure photographing each of you and taking the pictures for this annual. We hope you have enjoyed it as much as we have.

Secondly, we of the CUBBERLY STUDIO want to wish each of you WORLDS OF LUCK and an exciting and prosperous future.

Now that your folks have a good portrait of you, the question is, do you have a good portrait of them? Better still, why not a portrait of your whole family while you are still together? Just call us. We will be most happy to serve you.
